- 2013-14 “Improving Colon Cancer Screening for Diverse Populations.” Funded by the American Cancer Society, RSG-13-165-02 - CPPB (Subaward; $504,975)
- Oversaw implementation of randomized controlled trial of an intervention designed to increase colorectal cancer screening uptake in vulnerable primary care populations.
- 2012-13 “Colorectal Cancer Decision Aid/Navigator Pilot Project.” Funded by the UNM Clinical and Translational Science Center & the American Cancer Society, 8UL1TR000041 ($24,158; $8,850)
- Implemented a pilot study testing and evaluating a combined decision aid/patient navigator approach to improving colorectal cancer screening uptake among Hispanics in primary care.
- 2009-10 “Examining the Translational Role of Promotoras in Primary Care.” Funded through the IDEa Networks of Biomedical Research Excellence, UNM. ($23,940)
- Assessed the role of promotoras (community health workers) as health care adjuncts and recruiters of community members for participation in research studies.
- 2005-07 “Investigating Cultural Citizenship among Second Generation Mexican Immigrant Youth.” Funded through the National Science Foundation, BCS-0618958 ($15,000)
- Examined identity and social belonging among the children of Mexican immigrants in San Diego (through interviews, focus groups, freelisting, surveys and PhotoVoice).

Grants: Qualitative Researcher on Interdisciplinary Team

- 2013-14 “Low Dose CT Lung Cancer Screening: Informed Decision Making and Smoking Cessation.” Richard Hoffman, PI. Funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 3U48DP001931-05S1
- Conducted and analyzed interviews aimed at identifying patient and provider perspectives on shared decision making for lung cancer CT screening among underserved populations.
- 2013-14 “Comparing Traditional and Hybrid Learning in Graduate Biostatistics Using a Case-Crossover Mixed-Methods Study.” Lauren Hund, PI. Funded by the University of New Mexico School of Medicine Scholarship in Education Allocations Committee (SEAC)
- Conducted and analyzed focus groups with students to evaluate a hybrid (in-class/online) learning model for an introductory biostatistics course in the UNM public health program.
- 2012-14 “Partnerships to Reduce Disparities in Substance Use Screening and Treatment.” Andrew Sussman, PI. Funded by the NIH/National Center on Minority Health and Health Disparities, 1P20MD004811-01
- Conducted case study assessments of Hispanic and American Indian-serving NM primary care clinics to document the context of screening and treatment for substance use problems.

- 2010-14 “Stereotyping in Medical Student Decision-making: Presence, Origins and Solutions.” Robert Williams, PI. Funded by the NIH/National Center on Minority Health and Health Disparities, 1R01MD006073-01
- Completed national survey of senior medical students and conducted medical school case studies to better understand sources of potential bias in medical student decision-making.
- 2012-13 “Improving Health Information Access Equity for Unaffiliated Health Care Practitioners in New Mexico.” Brian Bunnett, PI. Funded through Office for Community Health/NM CARES Health Disparities Center, UNM.
- Oversaw qualitative analysis of a needs assessment to develop web-based portals through which NM providers access evidence-based, point of care health information resources.
- 2009-12 “Recruitment and Retention Best Practices in Primary Care Settings.” A. Victoria Neale, PI. Funded through the NIH/National Center on Minority Health and Health Disparities, 1RC1 MD004692-01
- Led qualitative assessment of strategies for recruiting/retaining diverse populations (Native Americans, Chinese, Hispanics, Arabs, and African Americans) in practice-based clinical research in five locations nationwide (NM, CA, TX, MI, and OH).
- 2008-11 “Colorectal Cancer Screening in Southwestern Hispanics and Native Americans.” Robert Rhyne, PI. Funded through the NIH/National Cancer Institute, 1R21 CA121066-01A2
- Served as primary data collector and qualitative analyst for study explored barriers to colorectal cancer screening in Hispanics and Native Americans in New Mexico.
- 2008-11 “Participatory Research to Understand the Translation of HPV Vaccine Policy.” Andrew Sussman, PI. Funded through the NIH/National Cancer Institute, 1R21CA134259-01
- Conducted research examining the formation of health policy for and dissemination of the HPV vaccine in New Mexico through interviews, a practice-based research network survey, and focus groups with adolescent girls and parents of vaccine-eligible adolescent girls.
- 2009-10 “Factors Influencing Decision-Making for the HPV Vaccine.” Andrew Sussman and Lisa Broidy, Co-PIs. Funded through the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Center for Health Policy at UNM.
- Served as primary data collector and qualitative analyst for study examining factors influencing decision-making by parents of vaccine-eligible girls, 12-17 year-old female adolescents, and their primary care health providers.
- 2003-05 “Promotoras as Mental Health Practitioners in Primary Care: Reducing Economic, Cultural, and Linguistic Barriers to the Treatment of Depression in Community Health Centers.” Howard Waitzkin, PI. Funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, 048127
- Led evaluation of an intervention aimed at reducing depression among low-income Hispanics through the use of community health workers in 2 Albuquerque clinics.

Project Evaluations/Consulting

- 2004-08 “A Snapshot of BLCI’s First Five Graduating Classes.” Conducted through the Barrio Logan College Institute, San Diego, CA.
